PYTHIAN SISTERS ENTERTAIN GRAND OFFICERS AT COLEMAN

At a joint meeting of members of Mizpah, Greenhill and Progressive Temples of Pythian Sisters, held at Coleman last night, a grand reception was accorded Sister Backus and Sister Muir, grand chief and grand keeper of records and correspondence, respectively, both of Red Deer.

Fully one hundred were in attendance at the meeting, during which the beautiful and impressive initiatory degree of that order was exemplified by the Greenhill Temple team from Blairmore.

Following the degree work, the meeting was addressed by the Grand Temple representatives and others, after which refreshments were served, followed by dancing.

A very interesting feature at this time was the presentation of a beautiful linen tray to Sister Backus and a framed picture of Crow's Nest Mountain to Sister Muir. The presentations were made by Sister Glenning, P.C. of Progressive Temple, in behalf of the three lodges represented. Fitting replies were made by the recipients.

Mrs. Backus, in her capacity as head of the Alberta Grand Temple, is hopeful of having visited all temples within her jurisdiction before the close of her term of office in March, and was pleased at the assistance rendered her in this connection by the sisters of Hillcrest, Blairmore and Coleman gathering to receive her officially at one joint meeting.

RATEPAYERS ANNUAL MEETING TOMORROW

The annual meeting of the ratepayers of the Town of Blairmore and Blairmore School District No. 628, will be held at the central school house tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, when the annual statements will be submitted and reports will be heard from various committees of the council and members of the board. The mayor and council and members of the school board are particularly desirous that a good turnout of ratepayers should be present. If you approve of their policy, tell them so; and if not, tell them why you don't. Of course, it must be in polite language. Brickbats, dead cats and over-ripe eggs are not considered good form nowadays.

GOVERNMENT PURCHASES EDMONTON CITY PROPERTY

Two blocks of frontage on 100th Street, immediately north of the site of the parliament buildings, has been purchased recently by the provincial government. According to plans announced by the premier, it is proposed to erect on this property new office buildings which will accommodate the government departments at present housed in the old parliament buildings and in the downtown section of the city. Provisions will also be made for the establishment of the offices required at a later date to administer the natural resources when these are taken over by the province.

First Installment

A lady had put on a new gown to go to a dinner dance and she entered her husband's dressing-room plumped before him like a circus girl, and said: "This is my new gown, dear. Isn't it becoming?"

"It may be coming," replied her husband, "but by gosh, a lot of it hasn't arrived yet."—Boston Transcript.

Blairmore won another league fixture on Thursday night by defeating Bellevue seven to two. The game was not without a few thrills. The tee was in excellent condition and the game was refereed by Mattson.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION BOARD COMMISSIONER VISITS BLAIRMORE

J. A. Kinney, commissioner for the Workmen's Compensation Board, paid a visit to Blairmore and neighboring towns this week and discussed accident prevention with the coal operators and their workmen.

The various miners' organizations of the district held special meetings in Blairmore, Coleman and Hillcrest, which were addressed by Mr. Kinney. He also met the managers of the local coal companies.

It was pointed out, on behalf of the Workmen's Compensation Board, that many of the accidents that were occurring in the mining industry appeared to be of a preventable nature and that with some greater cooperation between employers and workmen toward accident prevention, much of the economic loss in this important industry would be avoided as well as much of the physical suffering now borne by injured workmen and their dependants.

Mr. Kinney stated that in the mining industry of the province last year, there were some 3800 accidents reported, thirty of which had proven fatal and about the same number of workmen had suffered permanent disabilities of greater or less degree. The monetary cost of these accidents was in the neighborhood of one-half million dollars.

Opinions were expressed by both employers and workmen that accident prevention was a matter that should have their united support and it was suggested that further meetings should be held in the near future for a further consideration of plans that would tend toward greater safety in coal mines.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

Fred Tustian and Hillie Swart are Calgary visitors this week.

Miss Agnes Wycliff, who has been in a hospital in Edmonton as a nurse-in-training, is home for an extended vacation, owing to illness.

A popular comedy, entitled "It Looks Like Rain," will be staged in the I.O.O.F. hall on Wednesday, January the 30th, in aid of the United church fund and under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid.

A play entitled "The Chinese Garden," by ten girls and three ladies, will be staged in the I.O.O.F. hall, Cowley, on February 8th. All characters will appear in fancy costumes. This play promises to be very entertaining. The proceeds will be added to the funds of the United and Anglican churches.

A pleasant time was spent at the whist drive, put on under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary on Friday, January the 18th. The prize winners were: Ladies' first, Mrs. I. Christie; gent's first, Thomas Sheppard; while the consolations were awarded to Mrs. Murphy and Robert Alexander. An appetizing luncheon was served at the close of the drive. Proceeds were added to the fund of the Anglican church.

On Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Bundy gave a birthday party in honor of her daughter Barbara's twelfth birthday. In the contested games which were played, Mrs. Edwards, her teacher, and Keitha Tustian were the prize winners. The guests were: Barbara Bundy, Mrs. Edwards, Dorothy and Hazel Stainsby, Bessie Cooper, Jean, Aileen and Josephine Porter, Edith Murphy, Muriel Marlow, Rosalie Perceval, Keitha Tustian, Metta Swart, Verdon Leigh, Clara Bundy and Marion Morrison.

CHAPTER XII.—Continued.

Andy took the wounded bird from his hand. "Ow did it 'appen, Connie?" he asked tenderly.

Connie was as open and unaffected

as the wild birds of the forest. She was as capable of hating as she was of loving. Her eyes were laughing eyes, and the soul that looked out of them a merry soul, but she had a temper, and under sufficient provocation

her blue eyes could take on a dangerous glow.

She now turned like an enraged

lioness on the foreigner. "He killed it with a stick!" she cried furiously.

"You brute, you cowardly brute,"

she said, in her rage her voice became incoherent. With hands clenched and with breath coming in short gasp, she moved nearer to the object of her hatred. In her hysterical anger her voice rose almost to a scream.

"You cur, if I were a man I'd—"

lick you!"

The cry came to Donald's ears, and he was off up the trail like a deer.

"Go ahead, I'll follow," responded

Gillis.

Andy looked down on the mother goldfinch as it lay in his hand. He felt the quick throbbing of its heart grow faster and faster. One wing was broken and its white breast

was stained with blood. The bird's head drooped lower, and a film settled over its bright eyes. The beautiful wings stretched rigidly, and it gasped

convulsively, sending a tiny stain

of crimson from its mouth that fell warm on his palm.

Andy's face became colourless. His hand shook violently as he placed the dead bird tenderly on the ground.

"Connie dear," he said, in a voice

that trembled, "I ain't a whole man,

but 'ere's where you see 'ar a man

goin' into battle to give all his got."

He removed his coat and threw it

from him. Through a rage-mist

Andy saw the grinning foreigner throw up his arms in an abominably unceremonious posture of defiance. Like a mad cat, Andy launched himself straight at his husky opponent. The grin was wiped from the big man's face by Andy's compact fist, as it smashed resolutely on the end of his thick nose with a snap like that of a whip, and with a skilled force

that brought blood.

Andy's years of training boxer

now stood him in good stead. He well knew that a small man would stand little chance in long range

fighting, and he kept well inside the larger man's wild swings. With his blood head tucked against his adver-

sary's body, his fists worked like punches; he kept sending short jolts to the body that brought heavy groans

every time they landed.

Connie was delicious with excitement.

"Hit him, Andy! Hit him! Good!

Good!"

And then she groaned as the big man's hand found Andy's throat and flung him to the ground. Little Andy was up immediately, but stepped into a swinging fist that caught him over the eye and sent him sprawling. Undoubtedly, he came to his feet, waited warily for an opening, and again

sprang under the big man's guard.

Andy's fist shot up in a ripping uppercut that was judged to be a nifty, catching his opponent on the point of his chin with force enough to send him rocking on his heels, and before he could recover himself the same fist, accompanied by his mate,

beat a tattoo on his solar plexus.

In desperation the bewildered man

waved his arms about the little Australian and lifted him high in the air.

Like a game bulldog Andy hung on though his feet were off the ground

he clung to the big man's body like a leech.

Again the big hands felt for Andy's throat, and he was flung six feet to strike with a thump that shook every bone in his body. Connie cried out in fear as he narrowly avoided a brutal blow aimed at his head.

Andy's sense of British fair play

had received a rude shock. "As Me-thusalem said," he panted, as he came to his feet, "when in Bohemia

do as the Bohunks do."

"Take that, Spaghetti!" he shouted,

as he kicked the foreigner violently on the shin. While the latter leaned over in pain, Andy shot a well-directed uppercut to his face.

The big man sat down, a dazed look

in his eyes.

Breathless, Donald arrived on the scene, with Gillis puffing in the rear.

Breathing heavily, Andy's advice came to his feet, picked up his hat, and with arms wound about his head beat a hasty retreat. Andy was after him a hornet, sending stinging blows through his vulnerable spots. Donald and Gillis stood with mouths agape to see Andy administering a sound thrashing to a man twice his size. Right to the edge of the woods he relentlessly pursued his fleeing enemy.

Andy's head was held at its usual

cocky angle, and he assumed a swagger as he retraced his steps, but his short legs wobbled and he sank dis-

tastefully to a slump.

"I brought 'is blinks' meat-ous-

down, Connie," he gasped.

"Oh, Andy, you're a darling!" she cried, throwing her arms impulsively around the little man's neck, and touching her lips to his cheek.

Andy's florid face took on a deeper magenta, and he blinched hard to hide certain signs of emotion. He afterwards admitted to Donald that he was no "sweet sixteen," and that it was the first time that he had ever been kissed in his "blooms," and that

Connie wet her handkerchief in the cold water of the creek and bathed

his face with tender care.

She showed Donald and Gillis the nest, with the motherless birds

doomed to die a premature death by the act of wanton cruelty, and pointed to the tiny bird on the ground,

for whose untimely end Andy had taken a well-deserved and numbing vengeance. Connie choked as the lovely male bird flew to a stalk of goldenrod near its dead mate and sent out its throaty warble.

"Dear, dear, dearie," sang the goldfinch in a plaintive, questioning

note.

Andy presented a pitiful figure

with an eye closed, his lips swollen

CHAPTER XIII.

Renwick announced that Robert

Renwick's daughter and a party of girl

friends were to visit Summit Lake

the following week, and carpenters were set to work erecting cottages

for their accommodation.

A few days before her arrival Donald was both surprised and pleased to receive a cordial letter from her

in which she said that she was looking forward with pleasure to the coming holiday, and that she would deeply appreciate anything he might do for the entertainment of her friends.

As always, her father spared no

expense in providing for the comfort and pleasure of his daughter. That week a car containing a motorboat,

cannon and six saddle-horses was run

in on a side-track at the mill.

Connie learned of the coming event

through Donald as she was watching with keen interest the unloading of the spirited animals.

"You will enjoy yourself next week, Connie," he said gaily. "Miss Renwick is coming with friends. We'll have rides, picnics and dancing."

A few minutes later Connie joined Andy, who sat on the steps of the kitchen door enjoying a breath of fresh air.

"Is Miss Renwick rich, Andy?"

"An 'ole barrel of dough,"

"Is—is she beautiful?"

"I've 'eard so, Connie."

A short pause ensued while she searched the pockets of her overalls and produced several neatly folded papers. She extracted one, pressed it smooth, then passed it to Andy.

"Does Miss Renwick dress like that?"

It was a photograph of an actress dressed for the street, taken from one of the magazines that Donald had given her.

"I think so, Connie."

"Oh! She must be wonderful,

then," said Connie earnestly.

She moved closer to Andy, unfolded another page, and spread it on her knee.

Andy bent his head close to the one of gold. A startled look crossed his features and his brown bobbed up and down. It was a full-page advertisement of ladies' lingerie.

The highly coloured illustration of a lady, partially dressed, achieved the object of arresting the eye, while the remainder of the space was occupied by articles of apparel similar to those adorning the lady's graceful form.

Andy coughed. "Er—yes, Connie."

Connie raised her eyebrows incredulously.

"All at one time?"

"Sure—sure," mumbled Andy.

Connie stared. "Why, there must be nearly a dozen pieces. How is this fastened?" she questioned as she pointed with a slender brown finger to one of the engravings.

Andy took a quick glance. "Buttons."

"And this?"

"Buttons," replied Andy, gripping

the bowl of his pipe and sending out clouds of smoke.

"And this?"

"Strike me blind, what a 'ell of an

'ole," thought Andy.

"Buttons," he responded desperately without looking at the paper.

Canada's Historic Sites

The Historic Sites and Monument Board of Canada is composed of historical authorities, and one of its duties is to recommend to the Department of the Interior, historic sites worthy of being marked, restored, or preserved. The board meets annually to consider the various sites brought to their notice and forwards its opinion to the Department of the Interior which makes the decision and carries out the work through the National Parks of Canada Branch."Your girl is a blonde, eh? Sulcide or natural?"

"One who dyes by her own hand."

Quality Of Canadian

Goods Has Improved

Research And Skilled Labor Have Been Big FactorsThe quality of Canadian products is steadily improving, with greater knowledge of research, scientific methods, processes, application of skilled labor and the needs of buyers. In the face of mass production competition, Canadian producers are seeking to hold their places by giving special service, better quality or distinctive features to their products. That they are succeeding is proved by the fact that Canadian manufactures are exported to over a hundred countries, while supplying the greatest part of domestic needs.
A still greater share of the home
market would result in more production, more employment and more exporting, and it is therefore important that home industry should be encouraged by stabilization and other necessary measures as much as possible.

Recipes For This Week

(By Betty Barclay)

RICE AND SALMON SALAD

Take equal parts of salmon and cold boiled rice; stir with a fork until the fish and rice are thoroughly mixed. Pour into a salad dish and cover the whole with mayonnaise or botted dressing.Canned tuna fish, left-over chicken, meats, ham, or vegetables can be used in the same manner—always use equal quantity of rice. The addition of celery and hard-boiled eggs
make a more elaborate dish.

SANDWICH FILLING

One pound of mixed nuts (be careful to keep small particles of shell from clinging to the meats). One cup seedless raisins. Grind together in a food grinder, add a little salt
and the juice of one small orange.
Work together very thoroughly.
Place in a glass container and keep in a cool place. Can be used between thin, well buttered slices of whole wheat, white or bran bread.
Ideal for school lunches, workman's
lunches or picnics.

Already Advised

An "accident" case, in which the patient was suffering from a wound
in the head, was taken to hospital.
After taking the usual particulars
as to age and next of kin, the official said: "Now, don't worry. I shall take immediate steps to ensure your wife being advised of your detention here, and so save her from anxiety." To which the patient, resignedly replied: "She did it, Miss!"Sixteen hundred different noises disturb Milwaukee, according to police survey.Hewitt—"Can you get your wife to try the budget system?"

Jewett—"No, she won't budge."

DID YOU EVER/STOP TO THINK?

(By Edson R. Waite, Shawnee Oklahoma)

W. L. Edwards, editor-in-chief of the Leeds (England) Mercury, formerly of the London Daily Mail, and a World War veteran, says:

That the problem of the whole world today is how to get rid of our enemies. Is it possible? Yes. How?

If you want to get rid of an enemy, get him to know it. That's all. It sounds simple, doesn't it? But there's an immense and magnificent truth in it.

You can rarely hate the man you know, for hatred is the offspring of ignorance, not of knowledge. Of how many people have you heard it said: "He's a decent fellow when you get to know him." That's true of almost everybody.

I look to a day when nations will know each other so well that they will never make war. Men of one country would never take up arms to slay the men from an adjoining country. Then why should they take up arms to slay to slay the people of an adjoining country?

This enmity business is mostly stupidity and lies. We used to see in England a war poster showing a German soldier with a baby spitted on his bayonet. The hatred that inspired that kind of slander could only thrive on ignorance of the enemy, ignorance of human nature.

We are too ready to believe ill of people we dislike, whether in peace or war. We do not go to them and find their good points at first hand; we listen too often to scandal-mongers and toadies who tell us of their faults.

If you do not like a man, do not go to other people for information about him. Gossip merely strengthens prejudice. Study the man himself. When you understand him you will forgive him. You may even come to like him. The handshake is mightier than the fist.

THE YOUTH OF TODAY

One does not have to leave Hanna to see "kids" from fourteen years of age and up strutting about, one pocket filled with cigarettes and another with all day suckers, while the hip containers provide room for a very necessary flask and other articles more dangerous. Their justification is a claim to a superior knowledge and ability to look after themselves which was not possessed by the parent—Hanna Herald.

ADDRESS OF PREMIER TO U. OF A. MUNICIPALITIES

The following message is given by Premier Brownlee, through the medium of the Alberta Research Bulletin to the Union of Alberta Municipalities, with which Blairmore is associated:

Edmonton, Alta., Dec. 27, 1928. I gladly avail myself of the opportunity offered by the Research Bulletin of conveying to the Union of Alberta Municipalities my best wishes for the success of its activities during the coming year.

There is no phase of government which is more important to the individual than the administration of local affairs, and it is unavoidable that the scheme so far developed to meet the conditions of the province should be more or less experimental and temporary. Perhaps it is a good thing that it should be regarded as permanent, otherwise progress would be difficult. As it is, the thoughtful student of affairs will find wide scope for considering many problems and working out their solution; such as the convenient unit for local administration, their subdivision into smaller units; the convenient delegation of administrative functions which can best be left to the central government of the province—all with the idea of providing the necessary services at the minimum of efficiency and the minimum of expenditure.

Problems such as these all challenge the best efforts of experts in local government, such as constitute the personnel of the Union of Alberta Municipalities.

J. E. BROWNLEE*PROVINCIAL ARCHIVES COLLECTING HISTORICAL MATERIAL

In the provincial library, under the direction of Hon. George Hoadley, there is a branch of Archives of the province in which a large amount of source material of Alberta history has already been gathered. This branch is anxious to secure any manuscripts or journals containing the memories of early settlers which will serve as a historical record of the beginnings of community life, or any information respecting the existence of the same; also any existing early photographs of important persons

A wool pool in Alberta is now a possibility. Premier Brownlee met a number of representatives of the industry in this province the other day and the subject was opened up in a preliminary way. It will likely come before the executive council for further consideration in the future, the Government being interested in all co-operative efforts by way of advising and encouraging.

The Department of Public Works, at Ottawa, will shortly invite tenders for the first part of the public undertakings, designed to make Prescott, Ont., the transfer terminal for lake traffic. The ultimate outlay at Prescott is estimated at approximately $5,000,000, covering rail facilities, docks and elevators. It is understood that plans are now being prepared for the railway layout in which both the large railway companies are concerned.

The Lord Nelson Hotel, containing 100 rooms and decorated in the Georgian style, has just been opened in Halifax, Nova Scotia, facing the city's beautiful Botanical Gardens. The opening ceremony was marked by a dinner given by the Board of Trade to K. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Up to date in every particular and quietly and tastefully decorated in the period of design recalled by its name, the new hotel will fill a long felt want in the province.

Snow and dog teams are lacking in "His Destiny," a seven reel film produced by British Canadian Pictures Limited of Calgary, stated Guy Weadick, general manager of the company. The mountain scenes shot around Banff and Lake Louise are the finest backgrounds possible for an outdoor picture, he said. The Governor General and Lady Willington appear in the part showing the Calgary Stampede and 800 horses are used in a round up scene in this all Canadian film.

and events. Communications dealing with the above may be addressed to Mr. J. A. Jaffray, provincial librarian and archivist, Edmonton.

All Power

The professor was trying to demonstrate a simple experiment in the generation of steam.

"What have I in my hand?" he asked.

"A tin can," came the answer.

"Very true. Is this can an animate or an inanimate object?"

"Inanimate."

"Exactly. Now can anyone tell me how, with this can, it is possible to generate a surprising amount of speed and power almost beyond control?"

"Well Smith!"

"Tie it to a dog's tail."

A NEW YEAR'S WISH

May every grief that comes to you
And every cross and care
Become a flower to fill your life
With fragrance sweet and fair.

May kindly hope and holy peace
Be with you every day,
May sweet contentment bide with you,
Nor ever ask to stray.

May love be yours through all the years—
The love of young and old,
The best of all, the love of God—
The love that ne'er grows cold.

God's praise be ever on your tongue,
God's beauty in your mind,
That so in every humble way,
True happiness you'll find.

—Irish Messenger.

A NEW HYMN

A friend of ours in the central part of Alberta, figures that a certain hymn should be changed to read as follows:

On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wistful eye
Across a stretch of barren sand—
The stream has been pumped dry.
A weary pilgrim here I wait,
My fevered brow to lave;
But by transcendent freight
They've shipped the bounding wave.

Long time ago I turned my feet,
Fair Jordan's banks to strike.
The river glimmers in the heat,
As dusty as a pike.
I see old Canaan's land,
Where shovel, scoop and dredge
Are loading up the soil and sand,
And setting fields on edge.

On Sinai's mount the drills now hum,
And wild blasts fill the air.
They're quarrying new tablets from
The rock formations there.
Each hallowed spot that once I
A place serene and dear, [dreamed
Is now with excavations seamed
To make a souvenir.

With Sinai carved in tablets small,
And Canaan boxed in pecks,
And Jordan held in bottles tall,
This thought my soul must vex:
Do we now face the dreadful day,
And is it near at hand,
When sinners in a hurry may Get their religion canned?

Johnny's Choice

"Now, Johnny," said the Sunday school teacher, after the lesson had been read, "which would you rather be, the wheat or the tares?"
"The tares," answered Johnny promptly.

"Why," said the teacher, in surprise, "how can you say that, when you know the wheat represents good and the tares the bad?"

"Oh, that's all right," replied the precocious youngster, "but the wheat gets thrashed and the tares don't."

BLAIRMORE BOY IS STARRING

Referring to a game played at Los Angeles recently, a California paper has this to say of George Bond, a former Blairmore boy, who is doing good work for Oakland:

"Bond, by the way, was the outstanding star for the 'Oaks'. He accounted for three goals and his playing was brilliant for the entire sixty minutes. In fact, he was never relieved during the whole game.

"The Oilers looked like certain winners in the first period, when Sammy Larkin shot two goals in unassisted. But, in the second period, Oakland got the range of the Oiler
net, and when the twenty minutes
were over they piled up three scores.
With just one minute to play in the last period, when it looked a cinch
the teams could end the game in a tie, Bond got loose and made one of the prettiest scores of the season. The large crowd gave him one of the greatest ovations the Garden has ever witnessed. He is certain to bring a fancy price to owners Ganguish and Hassett, of the 'Oaks', because in a few short weeks he has developed into one of the big stars of the California league, a star both offensively and defensively."

A HELLIGY WRITTEN IN A COUNTRY CHURCHYARD

If you're coughing, choking, sneezing
—If your tubes are blocked and wheezing;

If your bones are stiff and aching and your temperature's high—Then you'll know the flu germ's busy
and he'll run you weak and dizzy,
But the Vendor has the potion that will check his inroads, guy.

Call the boss and say, "Relieve me
from my duties, sir—believe me
I regret to fail the office, but I'm all too sick to come!"

Then get into bed and stay there,
while you hold the plague at bay
there.

With a few hot-water bottles and a lot of ardent rum.

On Saturday last, information was laid against R. Tonge, foreman in charge of the Long Frame coal mine at Lambreck for contravention of Section 43, sub-sections 1 and 3, of the Mines Act. He was found guilty before Magistrate Trist and was fined $5 and $9.20 costs.

"But your husband is still alive?"

"Yes, but his hair is gone."

The stout lady got on a street car and put a parcel of sausages beside her. A young man in "knicker" got in at the next stop and sat down on the edge of the parcel. Turning to him she said: "Excuse me but do you play golf?"

The young man somewhat taken aback said he did.

"Well, would you mind getting off my links, then?" asked the stout lady.

"Joseph, if your father could save a dollar a week for four weeks, what would he then have?"

Joseph: "A photograph, a refrigerator, a washing machine and a set of furniture."

Rastus: "Here am a telegram from de master in Africa stating he am sending us some lions' tails."

Circus Owner's Wife: "Lions' tails, Rastus? What are you talking about?"

Rastus: "Well, read it yo'self. It says plain 'Jes captured two lions; sending details by mail.'"

Teacher: "Jimmy, if your father owed the landlord $20 and the grocer $16, what would he pay?"

Jimmy: "Nothin', ma'am; we'd move."

Father: "There was something funny about you last night, daughter."

Offspring: "I know, but I sent him home as early as I could."

A commercial traveller calling upon a new customer produced by mistake a snapshot of his fiancée instead of his business card.

"That's the firm I represent," he said.

The customer examined the somewhat determined-looking features of the young woman, and returned the photograph with the remark: "I'm afraid you'll never be manager of the firm!"

When little Bob bumped his head, grandpa said: "There, I'll kiss the spot and the pain will all be gone."

Next day the youngster exclaimed: "Come into the kitchen, grandpa, cook has the toothache."

Goblers

Turkeys are harder to rear than children sometimes, but they mature earlier, and once they reach maturity there is less chance of them going wrong. W. Freeman with his tremendous flock demonstrates that other than wheat can be raised in Alberta. He gets his greatest returns at a time when Santa Claus is making his heaviest outings. The farm is at Strathmore, where is also the Canadian Pacific Experimental Farm.

THERE'S A MORAL IN THIS

Two fool jackasses—now get the dope—

Were tied together with a piece of rope.

Said one to the other "You come my way,

While I take a nibble at this new mown hay."

"I won't," said the other, "you come with me,

For I, too, have some hay, you see. So they got nowhere; just pawed up dirt;

And oh, by golly, how that rope did hurt.

Then they faced about, these stubborn mules,

And said "We are just like human fools.

Let's pull together; I'll go your way, Then come with me, and we'll both eat hay."

Well, they ate their hay, and liked it, too;

And swore to be comrades good and true.

As the sun went down, they were heard to say:

"Ah, this is the end of a perfect day."

Now, get the lesson—don't let it pass; Learn this one thing from the poor jackass:

We must pull together—'tis the only way

To put us rightly on the map, and put us there to stay. —Anon.

Epitaph

Bill Johnson thought his gas was low; He struck a match; the tank let go—

Bill sailed three miles right in the air. Three miles on a pint is pretty fair.

Trainman: "What did the boss say when you told him you sat up all night with the baby?"

Guard: "The darn fool asked me what her name was."

The Alberta legislature will convene on Thursday, January the 31st.

FIR GROVE SCHOOL

"A Child's Reverie"

"Here's a little brown path, where I go each day—"

The path to the Fir Grove School; And strange it may seem to older folk,

This path is both warm and cool. In winter it warms the winds,

In summer it cools the sun. Oh! I love to go down this little path,

For school days are lots of fun. So I travel this same little road each day,

And learn my lessons well. For the little brown path whispers things to me

That I never, oh, never can tell. The fir trees stand so tall and grand,

That I never feel quite alone. In the morning I think of teacher's smile,

In the evening of Mother and Home.

WITH APOLOGIES TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

If you're searching for a motto to start the glad New Year,

And you're out to fight the devil with a will,

You will find it easy going and you're little else to fear

If you dig into your pocket and pay the grocery bill.

This world is full of troubles and you're bound to get your share,

You're off the track and riding for a spill,

Just tighten up your armor and cast aside dull care,

Take a mortgage on your pocket book and pay your grocery bill.

When you're in the final battle and you're game right to the end,

You've drained your cup and swallowed your last pill,

You will find a place in heaven and an everlasting friend,

If you've kept the home fires burning and paid your grocery bill,

He Wouldn't Allow It

Sandy had been staying with a friend for about a month, and he and his host one day called at a wayside inn for a drink.

As the latter was about to pay Sandy stopped him.

"Na, na," he said, "I'll nae allow it. Ye've been keepin' me in everythin' at yer hoose for a month, and paid for a' the drink an' everythin'. I tell ye, I'll nae mair o' it. We'll toss for this one."

WILL IMPORT 2000 PHEASANTS

Of interest to sportsmen in the province will be the announcement that some 2000 Mongolian and Chinese ring-necked pheasants will be imported during the coming summer by the Calgary Fish and Game Association. These birds will be liberated throughout the southern part of the province where 1800 were placed last season as part of the Game Association's plan for restocking Alberta's game bird supply.

Here and There

(1213) Ojibway Indians of the Nipigon district will not touch bear meat because they are mostly members of the Bear Clan, says Ozark Ripley, the well known sporting writer. They are averse to killing the bear and one hunting party relates having to forgo eating bear steak and having to bury a bear's carcass because their cook refused to touch the meat.

A trout weighing eight pounds was a catch reported last summer by William Mitchell in the neighbourhood of Banff, Alberta. "My record for the season is 308 fish," he writes, "all caught on rod and line within easy reach of Banff. Recently at Wapta I caught two six pound rainbows and several cutthroat weighing from two to three and a half pounds."

A record was hung up beside the Christmas stockings of the employees of the Canadian Pacific Express Company on Christmas Day when, from coast to coast, every Christmas package was delivered to its destination, except where there was no one to receive them. According to T. E. McDonnell, president of the company, express traffic was unusually heavy this season and was well handled.

Many enquiries for Row-r wheat, one of the early ripening varieties evolved by the Canadian Government Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, are being received by the Dominion Cerealist. The farm will have 10,000 bushels of this new wheat for distribution, and the 350 growers who were allowed to grow Row-r in 1928 will have a surplus of 2,000 bushels making available 12,000 bushels for use in 1929.

Production of agricultural implements and machinery in Canada amounted to $45,956,288 in 1927, according to the Bureau of Statistics, as compared with $38,252,214 for the previous year and $24,776,218 for 1925. Of the 45 firms reporting, 43 were in Ontario, 12 in Quebec, 4 in Manitoba, 4 in Alberta, one in Saskatchewan and one in Prince Edward Island.

Having successfully completed her trials off Scotland the new Canadian Pacific British Columbia coastal steamer "Princess Mabel" will arrive shortly at Victoria, Vancouver Island. The new ship is the seventeenth "Princess" of the company's fleet and is equipped with bow rudders to facilitate navigation in the narrow channels of the west coast.

Canadian seed wheat is in considerable demand in South America according to officials of the agricultural department of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Winnipeg. A ton of seed wheat was recently shipped from Brandon to Peruvian wheat ranchers, and it is expected that further orders will come from the South American republic.

Less than a minute was required to launch each boat when the life saving equipment of the Canadian Pacific liner "Duchess of Bedford" received its regular test at New York recently before embarking for Christmas cruises of the West Indies. "The finest and most efficient boat lowering apparatus I have ever seen," was the comment made by John J. Gray, head of the United States steamship inspection service, who was present at the test. The "Duchess of Bedford" is one of four sister ships of the new "liners" class all of whom are speedy oil burners and equipped with the same efficient life saving apparatus for use in an emergency.

The enthusiasm of the citizens of Quebec is so infectious that it is an easy matter to interest visitors in winter sports, stated J. G. Strathdee, winter sports manager of the Chateau Frontenac, in giving a forecast of this winter's programme. Skating, skiing and tobogganing will be in full swing as usual; the dog derby will most certainly take place; and the ice carnival and storming of the Citadel will probably be featured again he said. Mr. Strathdee mentioned the splendid co-operation given the winter activities at the Chateau Frontenac by the Quebec Winter Sports Association.

The number of disciples of Isaac Walton, Canadian and American, who have piled rod and reel in Canadian waters during the past season is greater than ever before, states A. O. Seymour, general tourist agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Montreal, in announcing the winners of the Ontario bungalow camp fishing trophy competitions. Philip Peterson of Laurium, Michigan, won the Nipigon River contest for speckled trout, Edmund Stoeckert of Chateau won the French River "muskie" prize, and Theodore Kipp of Winnipeg caught the largest bass entered in the Devil's Gap camp competition.

England will have enough Canadian apples shortly to keep the doctor away for the next year, if there is any truth in the proverb, as ships sailing for the old country this autumn are carrying many boxes of sour apples shipped by Canadians to their friends overseas. This has been the custom for the last few years and according to J. B. Martin, manager of the foreign department of the Canadian Pacific Express Company, it is becoming increasingly popular. So great has been the demand for fresh Canadian apples each autumn for shipment to Europe that growers throughout the country now have standard size boxes for shipping and special low rates are granted by the express company.

During 1928 between 5,500 and 5,700 Prince Edward Island foxes have been shipped abroad, an increase over the 4,200 shipped the preceding year. These have been handled without a single known casualty. Since the middle of October foxes have been shipped to Norway, Sweden, Scotland, Germany, Czechoslovakia, Bavaria, Finland, France, Holland, Switzerland and Japan.

Forty-two years of service with the Canadian Pacific Railway without having broken any of the company's rules or otherwise earned a mark against himself is the unique record held by Arthur W. Savage, engineer, who has just retired on pension. Mr. Savage, who is well known throughout the Eastern Townships, fired the train that laid the first steel on the line between Sherbrooke and Parham.

Vancouver is turning up its bell bottomed trousers in preparation for the four day Sea Music Festival to take place at the Hotel Vancouver from January 23 to 26. The cheery sea chanties and famous salt water ballads that have been sung by sailors for many centuries will be presented at this novel music festival, which promises to be one of the most popular and important events of the season in the west. It will be preceded by a Yuletide Festival at the Empress Hotel at Victoria when Christmas carols will be sung by well known artists and many quaint old customs will be revived by the players.

The finest show herd and the only shipment of its kind ever sent out of Canada is now on its way to Australia. Twenty-seven animals, three bulls and 24 females, the cream of James D. McGregor's famous Glenora stock farms, have been loaded into C. P. R. cars and started on their long journey to New South Wales. Twenty of the animals will be used for the foundation herd of the government animal husbandry department, while seven others will go to private purchasers. All are of the finest stock raised by the leading Aberdeen Angus breeder and most of them have won prizes at fairs and stock shows throughout the continent.

Brandon's first broadcasting station has gone into daily use, and a studio located there will give grain and stock reports each day, and once a week, in the evening, will broadcast local concert programmes.

A training school for the encouragement of home industries is being talked of in Winnipeg, following the Folk Song Festival held in that city recently under the auspices of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Montreal, it may be noted, has had for some years classes to teach their native handicrafts to children of foreign-born settlers, who would otherwise be likely not to acquire life skills they would have developed in their own country.

W. N. Beach, a hunter and photographer of wild life who had the unique distinction of finding two different pairs of locked antlers during his career, was a recent visitor to the General Tourist Department of the C. P. R. at Montreal. Locked antlers are very rarely found and one of the two pairs discovered by him are so firmly interlocked that they cannot be pulled apart by two strong men, and to be separated would have to be cut.

Western Canada in the Spotlight

The attention of people in all parts of Canada, and, in fact, of the world, will be directed to the prairie provinces of this Dominion during the next few months in a way and to an extent probably unprecedented in the history of any country, by reason of the applications to the Dominion Parliament for charters to build many hundreds of miles of railway in the northern portions of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Both the Canadian Pacific and the Canadian National Railways are asking Parliament for power to enormously extend their lines into the north country, and both announce their eagerness to proceed with the work of construction with the least possible delay. There is the keenest kind of rivalry between these two giant systems for rights into certain sections of this territory, with the result that a battle royal will take place at Ottawa when Parliament assembles.

One thing emerges quite clearly from the situation that has developed with almost startling suddenness, and that is, that, despite all former statements and predictions to the contrary, the railway management of Canada are now convinced of the enormous wealth of natural resources in the more northerly portions of Canada and of the success of the Hudson Bay Railway and Hudson Bay route to the markets of the old world.

There had long been a suspicion in the minds of many Western people that the former opposition in Montreal and other Eastern centres to the construction of the Hudson Bay Railway was based, not on their professed scepticism as to the feasibility of the route, but because of their belief that the route would prove to be an unqualified success, with all the upheaval which the opening of this short route from the heart of the prairies to the markets of the world would cause in existing transportation conditions, rates, and routing of traffic.

Examination of the plans of the railways, as thus far outlined, indicates a reversal of formerly held views that the people of Western Canada should be served by lines running east and west, with all the tremendous production of the prairies moving out either to the Atlantic or the Pacific sea boards, and all our imported products coming in through the same ports. Now, both of the great railway companies appear to be determined to connect up their east and west lines by short branches here and there and the construction of great north and south main lines, all stretching hundreds of miles north of existing settlement and heading towards tidewater in the north. A veritable railway revolution is in prospect.

This declaration of absolute confidence in the northern half of these prairie provinces, and in the Hudson Bay outlet, evidenced by the willingness of the biggest financial men in Canada, interested in the C.P.R. to expend tens of millions of dollars in northern extensions, will attract the attention of the whole world and will constitute the greatest publicity this section of the Dominion has ever received.

Regardless of the decisions reached by Parliament as to division of the northern territory between the rival systems, and the respective zones to be allotted to each, the result will be to roll back the map of Canada hundreds of miles. The old reproach and weakness of Canada that it consisted of a narrow strip of more or less settled territory extending thousands of miles from the Atlantic to the Pacific along the Canada-United States boundary line, is to be removed. To the Dominion will be given great depth as well as great width, and what for centuries has been looked upon as barren wastes of extensive territory, but of no value, will become a storehouse of treasure, the development of which will add enormously to the population and wealth of the Dominion, providing new avenues of employment, and diversified employment at that, for the people of Canada.

Utilizing Coal Resources

The new Fuel Research Laboratories of the Department of Mines at Ottawa, were designed and the equipment selected with a view to carrying out investigations which would be in the interest of the development of the coal resources of the Dominion.

Simple Precautions Against FLU

Sore Throat —

— The Danger Signal

Health Authorities Point Out The Necessity Of Treating The Simple Cold At Its Beginning

Nearly every case of "Flu" starts with a simple cold. At first the throat is sore—often just a little hoarse—soon the infection goes lower—then the chest is affected. A safe plan is to gargle the throat three times daily with "Nervine"—this will keep the throat free from germs. If there is any sign of tightness in the chest, rub on Nervine—every drop will penetrate deeply—congestion will be relieved—the cold will break up quickly. Many a dangerous case of "Flu" can be avoided by this simple home treatment.

Of course it is always wise to take some relaxing medicine, and for this purpose immediate results will be secured from Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they purge the system of impurities and carry off a lot of disease-breeding wastes.

This combination treatment of Nervine and Dr. Hamilton's Pills is very effective for Grippe, Influenza, Bad Colds, etc., and can be relied upon to give very satisfactory results.

Alberta's Peer's Estate

Estate Of Earl Of Egmont Estimated To Approximate One Million Dollars In Value

That the estate to which the Earl of Egmont, of Fridesda, Alta., has fallen heir, will approximate one million dollars is an estimate made at Calgary with his assistance.

The bulk of the estate comprises Avon Castle, the family seat at Haddington, Fife, and 1,300 acres surrounding it.

Some $40,000 has been spent lately in improving the land and the residence, declared the new earl.

In addition, he says, there are investments in stocks and shares and in war bonds amounting to a large total.

A STOMACH RESTORER

Good Advice From One Who Had Suffered Much

Discomfort after eating, gas pains in the intestinal tract, pains around the heart, sour risings in the throat, called heartburn, are common symptoms of dyspepsia. It is a condition often neglected until it has done permanent harm, yet the treatment is simple. The great contributing cause to this trouble is thin blood. Good blood and plenty of it is required by the stomach to function properly. If the blood is thin the stomach becomes sluggish, food lies undigested, gas forms causing pains, often around the heart. Instead of getting nourishment from the blood the system acts poison. The proper treatment is to enrich the blood, and there is no other remedy so effective as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The sole mission of these pills is to make new, rich, red blood, which reaches every organ and nerve in the body, and thus not only banishes indigestion and dyspepsia, but also all other troubles having their origin in weak, watery blood.

The splendid results following the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is shown by the case of Mrs. Lucy A. Cushing, a former resident of Kemps, N.S., but now living with her son at West Bethel, Me. Mrs. Cushing says: "I have no heart and I am strongly recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. For years I was a great sufferer from indigestion and pains in my stomach and other distressing symptoms that accompany this ailment. I tried different doctors while residing at my old home and also at West Bethel, but without getting relief. I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I did so and I must say that I am feeling very grateful ever since to the good friend who gave me the advice. I soon found the pills helping me and by the time I had taken nine or ten boxes I was completely restored to good health. I could now do my work and I am feeling as well and smart as I did at 35, and am enjoying life once more."

Send for the pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Speakers At Dinner Of Canadian Society

U.S. and Canadian Senators Guests At Function In New York

The Canadian Society of New York helped to strengthen the North American entente cordiale by bringing together as their guests at their annual dinner two senators, one from the Canadian Upper Chamber, Hon. C. P. Beaupre, K.C., and the other from the United States House, Hon. Simeon D. Fess, of Ohio. The speakers dealt with the aspirations of the two countries.

Senator Fess frankly discussed the two chief issues now agitating the Congress, the Kellogg treaty and the new cruiser program, and he readily supported both. The United States, he declared, should not put any obstacle in the way of the effort to banish war.

Senator Beaupre reviewed the development of Canada in recent years and painted a glowing picture of the Dominion's future.

"Canada, with a vision quickening and widening, has remained sober-minded, fairly traditional, and, I think I can add, hardworking and still law-abiding and God-fearing," he said.

"When you grow up you shall be a gentleman."
 "I don't want to be a gentleman. I want to be like you, daddy."

Shows Canada's Loyalty

London Paper Expresses Appreciation Of Reverse To Penny Postage

The London Sunday Times in an editorial headed "Canada leads the way," welcomed the increased British immigration quota as emphasizing the practical loyalty of Canadians to their British stock, but fears that the proper advantage may not be taken of it in Great Britain. The newspaper quotes further encouragement both of propaganda and finance.

The Sunday Times also expresses appreciation of the penny postage and finds in it "a signal proof of Canada's strong imperial sentiments."

After urging Hon. Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer, to follow Canada's example the Sunday Times advocates a common empire stamp which, it states would have a real psychological value as a symbol of imperial unity.

Kellogg Explains Treaty

The Paris pact for renunciation of war commits none of the signatories to it to go to war in defence of any country attacked in defiance of the treaty. Secretary of State, Frank B. ## UNITED FARMERS ASK FOR BETTER FREIGHT RATES

Vancouver.—Backed by the United Farmers of the three prairie provinces, the United Farmers of B.C. will carry British Columbia's claim for better freight rates to the governor-in-council at Ottawa.

The appeal has been prepared and forwarded to Ottawa by G. G. McGeer, K.C. The appeal involves three requests: That export grain rates on the Canadian Pacific Railway to Vancouver be reduced to the level obtaining at Fort William; that domestic grain and flour rates over both transcontinental lines be reduced to the level obtaining at Fort William and the removal of the mountain differential in all freight rates covering the movement of all traffic into, from or through British Columbia.

Mr. McGeer will conduct the case at Ottawa when argument is heard. Mr. McGeer will also continue his appeal to the board of railway commissioners for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada from the commissioners' decision in the matter of domestic grain rates.

Mr. McGeer announced his intention of appealing direct to the governor-in-council before the board of railway commissioners. Later, however, when the board gave permission to Leon J. Ladner, K.C., who represented the attorney-general of British Columbia, permission to make formal application for extension of time in which the appeal would be made, Mr. McGeer said that if the attorney-general was going ahead with the appeal he was also going to ask for leave to appeal on behalf of his clients to the supreme court.

J. E. McMullen, acting for the Canadian Pacific Railway, said the application was one that should be answered by the full board at Ottawa. R. W. Hamington, counsel for the Canadian National Railway, supported Mr. McMullen's argument. The chief commissioner, H. A. McKewen, said that in view of the circumstances connected with the application, and the fact that no notice had been given the railways, the application might very well be heard in Ottawa.

Favor Old Age Pensions

Discussed Problems Of Egg Marketing

Canadian Producers' Association
To Take Matter Up With Government

Toronto.—Egg marketing problems were discussed at the annual convention of the Canadian Producers' Association here. In view of the unsatisfactory situation which confronted the dealers on account of surplus supply it was decided that a committee be named to take the matter up with the Dominion government. W. S. Cameron, Toronto, president of the association, suggested that the committee be representative of dealers, exporters and producers.

Alfred McCann, of Cheltenham, Ont., urged that advertising calculated to insure the consumption of eggs should be undertaken by the government. Mr. Cameron in his presidential address, stated that the season has been a profitable one for the egg producers but on the average it has been unprofitable for the dealers. Consumption per capita in Canada had risen from 106 dozen in 1921 to 29.67 in 1927, and he expected the 1928 figures to show more than 30 dozen per capita.

Reparations Conference

Reported Meeting Will Be Held
In Paris In February

Paris.—It has been intimated that the reparations conference will meet in Paris about February 9, and in addition to Owen D. Young, former general agent of reparations, J. Pierpont Morgan is expected to take an important part in the discussions. As far as could be learned from a canvass of the interested officials, no one seems to have any definite plan to submit. All the experts have ideas and some have a few constructive suggestions, but none have extensive programs.

The British experts, it is understood, will assume a waiting attitude, and the initial discussion is expected to be between France and Germany. The Italians will content themselves with trying to retain what they have already secured and Japan will trust to what turns up.

Great Increase Shown In Canadian Trade

Advance of Nearly $35,000,000 During Last Nine Months
Ottawa.—Canada's total trade advanced nearly $35,000,000 during the last nine months of 1928. The total of $2,097,890,158 compares with $1,773,992,834 for the corresponding period in 1927.

Figures were made available at the department of national revenue. Domestic exports were valued at $1,071,647,164, an increase of $111,942,797 over the comparative figures of $960,104,387 in the previous year. Wheat exports alone moved upward more than $51,000,000, while newsprint and automobiles were substantially heavier.

GERMAN PLAN FOR NEW CRUISER IS PUBLISHED

Berlin.—Publication by the London Review of Reviews of the text of a secret memorandum in which General Groener, German minister of defence, defended the necessity for the construction of a new battle cruiser has caused considerable consternation in government circles here.

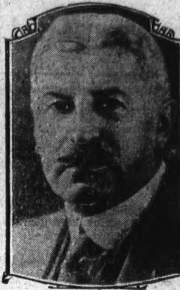

As the memorandum was known only to cabinet members and a restricted number of persons official quarters are at a loss to explain how the "leakage" took place and an investigation has been ordered.

It is considered in Berlin that there is no doubt the London publication was from the original text and the indignation of the press is increased because the memorandum was withheld even from members of the Reichstag, who are determined to interrogate the government on the "leakage."

London.—Wickham Steed, editor of the Review of Reviews, said that the Groener memorandum had been published in "perfectly authentic and was not stolen."

"It reached me in an ordinary way through a channel that I trust I satisfied myself as to its authenticity. They can make all the investigations they like as far as I am concerned."

Roumanian Train Crew Responsible
For Death of Fourteen Persons

Turnu-Severin, Roumania.—Railroad inspectors said that drunkenness on the part of the engineer and crew of the Bucharest-Temesvar express cost the lives of 14 persons. In addition to the fatalities about two score passengers were injured at Prunescu, near here, when the express crashed into a local train which had been derailed.

The express was plunging along at 55 miles an hour in the dead of night when the crash occurred. The engineer of the express, which was heavily laden, was apparently blind to all signals. In their excitement over the derailed local train station officials apparently forgot about the onrushing Bucharest express, which ploughed into the passenger coaches of the local train like a catapult.

Woman Leads Defence In Murder Trial

Praised For Fines in Old Bailey, But Failed to Receive Acquittal

London.—Miss Venetia Stephenson failed to secure acquittal at the central criminal court of the first man she had defended on a charge of murder, John Holmy Ward, aged 24. The jury without much delay returned a verdict the prisoner was guilty of the murder of his grandfather, a bookmaker, who was found with his skull fractured in Pimlico. But she received the warmest congratulations upon her case for the defence from Mr. Justice Humphries. Miss Stephenson, eschewed any attempt at rhetoric. "I am fighting for this young man's life and if words fail me it is because I appreciate the responsibility that rests on me," she said.

Miss Stephenson, however, used carefully chosen sentences when she passed to a review of the evidence, urging the manner in which the accused's grandfather met his death was consistent with the younger man defending himself from attack by the elder.

"I know you will not let sympathy for the dead over-ride justice for the living," were her last words. "This is the most solemn moment of my life and I leave this young man's life in your hands, with a prayer that God might lead you to the right conclusion."

His Lordship in summing up said it was difficult to accept the theory of self-defence.

Western Pioneer Dead

Major Augustus Mills Came to Winnipeg in 1870

Winnipeg.—Pioneer of early western Canadian military expeditions, Major Augustus Mills, 79, is dead at his home here. He came to Winnipeg in 1870 as a member of the first Lord Wolseley expedition, and later participated in the rebellion in 1885. He was a captain in the 10th Infantry, which made a famous western march in search of the Indian chief, Big Bear.

For a time he was a Dominion government land agent and then, in 1883, was appointed deputy postmaster general in Manitoba. He was a justice of the peace and a member of the courts, a position which he held at the time of his death.

APPROVE NEW RURAL SCHOOL PLAN IN ALBERTA

Edmonton.—Approval of the Baker rural school plan, sponsored by the Alberta government, was voiced by the convention of the United Farmers of Alberta here. A vote, taken on the questions, favored approval of the Baker system by 203 to 161. According to the resolution the convention favored raising funds by grouping rural school areas in one district under a flat mill rate on assessed valuation.

Hon. Perren E. Baker, minister of education in the Alberta government, was the most prominent figure in the discussion on the system which bears his name. In the midst of a debate he was summoned into the argument at the request of the farm delegates. After outlining his system, the minister of education answered queries on the matter until the program was halted. According to the projected system, the province would be divided into 20 divisions of 15 school districts each. Chairmen of the district boards to form a general board, which, with the minister of education, would supervise rural educational matters in Alberta. Selection, placing and payment of teachers under the Baker plan, would be handled by the general board.

In the discussion on the Baker idea "government by proxy" was quoted as a name for the proposed mode of rural educational supervision. It was claimed that, regarding single taxation areas, "none would stand for a blanket tax assessed by a bureau of the government."

In answering his critics, Mr. Baker denied the "bureaucracy" and "government by proxy" allegation, and stated that matters would be governed by appointed representatives of the ratepayers. He estimated that the increase in taxation, necessary to pay for the better supervision the new system would involve, would be covered by a three-quarter mill increase over the entire rural area. And he contended that the new plan would place experts in charge of the allocation and selection of teachers.

TAX REDUCTIONS ARE URGED BY MANUFACTURERS

Hamilton, Ont.—The report of the special committee on taxation was presented at a meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' association. It recommended consideration by the government of a method to avoid "double" and in many cases triple taxation, which, it was said, occurred through taxation of net earnings of corporations and the personal income tax, which applied to dividends. Reductions of the personal income tax, reduction and final abolition of the sales tax, and a reduction in the excise taxes on finished goods were other recommendations.

An important closed meeting of the council of the association was held at which over 200 members from all over the Dominion were present. A luncheon was also held when Sir Joseph Flavelle, Toronto, spoke on "Industrial Research." He said: "Premier Ferguson, some time ago promised $1,000,000 towards industrial research if the association raised a similar amount. We have since collected $1,500,000, and the premier has challenged us to make that $2,000,000, with the promise that the government would advance a like amount. It is for us to accept this challenge," said F. F. Moneyeney, chairman of the Ontario division of the association.

Sir Joseph Flavelle said that Canadian manufacturers were behind their British and American competitors in applying science to their businesses.
